

THE AUTONOMY OF KOREA.

The Korea Review questions the opinion of Dr. Morrison, the Times correspondent, who in a recent dispatch, quoted in the Chronicle wrote that the continuance of Korea's autonomy was out of the question. In an editorial comment, our Seoul contemporary says:—

"With all due regard to the keenness of his (Dr. Morrison's) observation and the astuteness of his mind we beg to be allowed to hold our judgment in abeyance for a time. We were told in 1894 that Korean autonomy was practically at an end, but to-day, nine years later, we find her exercising complete autonomy. This may not be because of intrinsic strength; but, whatever the reason, it is a fact. Some things are held together by internal cohesion and others by pressure from without. Korea may be one of the latter, but it is a prophetic eye indeed that can see signs of an immediate loss of that autonomy. The Far East has not reached that delicate adjustment which makes the 'balance of power' such a fetish as it is in Europe, but nevertheless the dismemberment of a people, even 'Orientals,' that numbers one and a half as many souls as the kingdom of Spain will not be accomplished without strenuous exertion. For the last thirty years old Japan has declared herself the champion of Korean autonomy, and she showed the honesty of that declaration when in 1894 she forbore to take advantage of her position and absorb the peninsula. No thoughtful person can believe that Japan would wish to tamper with the autonomy of Korea so long as her legitimate interests here are respected. Nor is this last clause a loophole of escape from the main proposition. Her interests are those of commerce, and they are legitimized by the fact that they are as beneficial to Korea as to Japan. Except it be in order to safeguard these interests, we do not believe Japan would be any more ready to assume the administration of civil government in the peninsula than the United States would be. It would be a difficult, an almost hopeless task. Even a continuance of the present attitude of thinly veiled antagonism on the part of the Government would be preferable to Japan, to the necessity of grappling with the terrific problem of shouldering the administration of the government. It is logically absurd. Who, then, is to disturb the autonomy of Korea? There is only one other possibility, but if there is any one thing sorer than another it is that Japan will not allow the autonomy of Korea to be tampered with. If Russia wins, the presentment of Dr. Morrison may take on substance, but if Japan wins, or if a compromise is effected, the prime feature in it will be the continued autonomy of Korea, unless she herself should act in such a way as to make such autonomy impossible; and our past experience of Korea does not warrant the belief that she would be other than quiescent, as she was after the Japan-China war, when she was wholly in the hands of Japan.

"Nor must it be inferred that public sentiment is entirely against Japan here in Korea. Public expression of sentiment always follows the will of the party in power in such a country as this, but it would be a mistake to think Korea has witnessed the rise of Japan in vain and that there are not multitudes who see in Japan's achievements the promise of future progress for Korea.

"Preponderance of influence does not necessarily impair sovereignty, and so long as Korea is in treaty relations with the rest of the world, Powers, and their representatives are accredited to her Court, so long shall we claim that Korea's sovereignty is unimpaired and her autonomy complete.

"And right here it is pertinent to say that we believe that the working out of Korea's political, social and industrial salvation can be accomplished much better as well as much faster under a separate and autonomous government than under any protectorate that is at all likely to intervene. But she needs help to do it. Japan, with all her vigour engendered of feudalism, was not able to become what she is without enormous help from outside. How much less, then, can Korea do it without tutelage."—Ez.

WORDS TO WOMEN.

What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for a London Lady.

Women who suffer from Headaches, Pains in the Back or Side, fainting fits, Anemia or general weakness, are asked to try what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People will do for them.

WHY THEY SHOULD TRY.

There is no other medicine that has done so much to save women from the miseries which constantly or periodically afflict almost every woman. The girl in her "teens," hindered in development; the tired mother, wearied with work; or the middle-aged woman beginning to feel old before her time, will all find, if they choose to ask, that sufferers like themselves bless the day when they first heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

WHAT THEY SHOULD DO.

We only ask our readers to send a private letter to us—Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Holborn-viaduct, London—and we undertake to prove to them beyond all doubt that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have saved the health of many women, who but for them would be miserable invalids. More. They are capable of giving relief unspeakable to thousands of women who, either because they cannot afford to rest, or because their modesty keeps them from complaining, suffer in silence month after month. It is especially to these women that we appeal. We send Dr. Williams' Pink Pills post free for 2s. 6d. to any address. We gladly answer in strict confidence any letter of enquiry. We promise that if any woman doubts the value of the pills we will send absolutely unquestionable proof.

WHAT A LONDON LADY DID.

Mrs. Mason, 60, Rosslyn-road, South Tottenham, London, a courageous and cultured lady, sends this message to her fellow sufferers:—

"I suffered from Fainting Fits since I was twelve years of age. As I grew older they became more frequent. I heard Dr. Williams' Pink Pills praised by a gentleman who, like myself, had suffered from fainting fits, which reduced him to a mere shadow. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills put him right again.

"After I was married I decided to try the pills myself. Their effect was truly marvellous before I had finished the first bottle.

"The pills are really strengthening, not purgative and weakening. I am now in splendid health, thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

A SERIOUS WARNING.

The pills can be bought at all medicine shops, but it is important to see that you obtain the genuine Dr. Williams'—and you can only be sure of that if you see on the pink wrapper the full name—not merely Pink Pills, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

HONGKONG, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1903.

AMERICA-CHINA TRADE.

During the month of September the miscellaneous products shipped from San Francisco to China, Japan and Far Eastern ports, and including the Philippines, aggregated $1,036,994, against $846,519 during the same month last year, thus showing an increase of $190,475. For the calendar year ending December 1902, the exports from Puget Sound and Willamette were $46,381,250 as against $38,047,625 for the two Californian ports of San Francisco and San Diego. In steamship tonnage, Puget Sound has risen to the position of leading port on the Pacific Ocean, no less than 52,049 having entered, and 69,909 cleared in the month of February, as compared with 47,443 entered and 57,731 cleared at San Francisco. Portland and Puget Sound ports are restricted in their foreign export trade chiefly to a few commodities which are native products, such as wheat, flour, lumber and canned salmon, but, of late, a considerable quantity of fresh apples has been shipped from the former port to the Orient, where they find a profitable market. A recent dispatch from that city states that the British steamer Algon has entered the Columbia river, and will proceed to the port to load 12,000 tons of flour and wheat for the China ports. Apart from the fact that she is the largest craft that ever crossed the Columbia river bar, and that this will be the largest flour cargo that has left the United States, she is the biggest freight-carrier that has so far visited the Pacific Coast, although some of the Pacific Mail liners trading regularly between San Francisco ports and the Orient approximate very closely to her in size and carrying capacity.
This denotes a healthy growth in the Oriental trade. It is said that Portland and Puget Sound ports are profiting materially this year in their grain and flouring shipments abroad from the shortage in the grain crop of California, otherwise the Algon would have doubtless taken her cargo of grain and flour for the Orient from San Francisco instead of from Portland. Several ships originally chartered to load grain at San Francisco for other foreign ports have been sent north for the same reason. But even in the shipment of grain abroad there is a marked difference between the business of the northern ports and this, says the S. F. Chronicle. Since the movement of the new crop began San Francisco has sent out forty-two wheat cargoes in ships registered in register from 1,500 to 2,600 tons, whereas from Portland and Astoria only five have sailed and from Puget Sound only two had cleared up to a month ago. But it must be remembered that the foreign exports of San Francisco, particularly those destined to Oriental ports, embrace a great variety of miscellaneous products, besides grain, flour and canned salmon. On the last voyage of the mail steamer Siberia
she had a miscellaneous cargo, the major part of which consisted of California manufactured products valued at $380,255. Excepting $6,427 destined for Honolulu, the remainder of this valuable cargo was shipped for distribution in Hongkong, Japan, the Philippines, India, Straits Settlements, Java, Sumatra, Singapore, Korea, Manchuria and other ports on the Chinese coast. Puget Sound is, of course, the logical gateway of the United States to the Pacific Orient; for, the most direct route from either San Francisco or San Diego to Japan or China, instead of being westerly by way of the Sandwich Islands, is northerly past Puget Sound and the Behring Sea, and is, in fact, shorter by about a week's voyage for a fifteen knot vessel and nearly nine days for a twelve knot vessel. Hence, it is possible that in the near future the large output of goods destined for the Oriental market will arrive in China in less time than our huge liners are at present bringing it across the Pacific.

disposed of for £9,100 to Mr. Pittaluga, of the Hongkong line, and the Maxilla it will be remembered, was fitted out here as an armed cruiser during the Russian war scare some years ago.THE steamship Lyra, which arrived at Tacoma from Manila on 25th ult., took the largest cargo of hemp that ever crossed the Pacific ocean in any vessel, aggregating 2,142,000 pounds, and being valued at $734,000, making it the most valuable cargo brought to that port by an Asiatic liner in many years. Besides hemp, she had over 9,000 rolls of matting to discharge, 1,500 bags of rice from Borneo, a consignment of tea from Ceylon, and a consignment of pepper from Borneo.At a mass meeting of the employees at Lord

pedition of engineers and miners was to leave early this month for Portuguese East Africa to begin the development of what are believed to be King Solomon's Ophir gold mines. The expedition will be headed by Dr. Carl Peters, the well-known German colonial expert, who is confident that he will succeed in locating the El Dorado of the ancients in the north-western corner of the Portuguese colony, close to the border of Rhodesia. Operations will be begun simultaneously at three points contiguous to the Zambezi river—Inyakafura, Inyabanda and Umalia. Dr. Peters believes he has discovered unassailable archaeological proof that this was the region where David and Solomon obtained the fabulous wealth they brought to Jerusalem.
One of the rediscovered mines has been rechristened "Von Moltke" after the famous Prussian General. As evidence of the Semitic ancestors of the region, it is stated that the natives are different from any other tribes in Africa, being of distinctly Hebrew type. Their dialect contains many traces of Semitic origin.C. LWAY has been selected as the port at which was made of a gold mine along the Vericol posed by Viceroy Chang Chih-tung, and restricting Chinese students studying or to study in Japan, the Universal Gazette hears that two more clauses to the regulation have been added.

Article 1 stipulates that all Chinese students now studying in Japan must carry out the regulations otherwise, the Chinese Government will not take into account the merits of their studies. Article 2 says that in case Japanese schools, public or private, fail to observe the regulations, the Chinese students which hereafter graduate from these schools shall be deprived of the special privileges offered them by the Chinese Government. The Waiwupu has duly notified the Governor of Hupeh of the two articles in question.MR. E. W. Cole, of bookselling fame in Sydney and Melbourne, has been in Japan for several months. Mr. Cole does not believe in keeping out the colored man and has published a small book, entitled "A White Australia Impossible." He has come to the East to arm himself with stronger and more destructive argumentative weapons. Australia has made a mistake—a grave mistake, he said, and now that he has seen with his own eyes what the Japanese are capable of he has come to the conclusion that the Colony will live to rue the day that she passed such foolish legislation. Whilst in Japan Mr. Cole spent most of his time interviewing the leading men. The hand of friendship was held out to Mr. Cole, his wife and daughters who accompanied him, and he was the guest at many a public function.
He did as much as he could to promote the cause of the brotherhood of man and endeavored to force it home to the Japanese by having medals made and distributed bearing the following inscription: "All men are brothers. The people everywhere that we do not know are as good as the people that we do know." Mr. Cole had 1,000 made of nickel, which he distributed amongst school children, and 100 made of silver, which he gave to leading men. The Japanese took to the idea well, and made much of Mr. Cole and his family, the vernacular papers in particular booming him up in regular theatrical style. Mr. Cole is now in Java taking a snapshot study of the colored question there, and thence he will go to Australia.THE Beer to drink in the tropics is the Beer laid down in January, 1903. She is of 3,000 tons displacement, and her speed under natural draught is 20 knots, with 7,000 indicated horsepower. Her coal capacity at load draught is only 300 tons. She is to be fitted with turbine

TELEGRAMS.

(Reuters.)

Russia and Japan.

LONDON, 27th November.
The Morning Post understands that there is no truth in the reports that Japan is ready to abandon Manchuria to Russia in return for a free hand in Korea.

LATER.

It is stated in St. Petersburg that Viceroy Alexieff's return is delayed by the negotiations being carried on in the Far East, and that he has received the Tsar's orders to press matters with the Japanese Government while the latter is acting on foreign counsels in a pacific mood. Russia is doing everything to bring the negotiations to a conclusion.

Three-quarters of the Russian fleet is now massed in or moving towards the Pacific, and practically nothing is left in European waters.

The British M. P.'s in France.

At a brilliant banquet at the Grand Hotel, Paris, to the British M. P.'s the speeches were marked by the utmost cordiality on both sides. M. Combes who spoke decidedly in support of a good understanding between the two nations was loudly applauded. Referring to the presence at the same table, without distinction of party, of representatives of the British and French people, he hoped the Arbitration treaty would prove a fruitful germ of future treaties.

Russian and the British Expedition to Tibet.

The Russian papers persistently discuss the British expedition to Tibet, enlarging on its effect, direct and indirect, upon Central Asia generally and because it will establish British prestige to the detriment of Russia. They also dwell on the necessity of thwarting the ambitious designs of Great Britain.

The Crisis.

Tokio, 25th November.

The situation shows no improvement.
Japan's minimum proposals were submitted in October last, but Russia is still silent, which is producing a bad effect.
It is feared that unless the basis of an agreement is arranged before the opening of the Diet on the 6th of December next, the situation will possibly be carried beyond diplomatic control.

The Far East.

STATEMENT BY JAPANESE PREMIER.

Berlin via Shanghai, 21st November.
The Manchester Guardian publishes an account of an interview its correspondent has had with Count Katsura, the Premier of Japan. The Japanese Premier assured the representative of the Manchester paper that the negotiations with Russia will result in a peaceful settlement. The Berlin diplomats regard the news as accurate and satisfactory.—Mantchi.

THE "TAYUAN" EPISODE.

The N. C. D. News of 24th inst. says the manager here of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, the owners of the Tayuan Maru, had received no details by letter yesterday morning of the recent tragic events on board, but the telegrams they received four or five days ago confirmed our correspondent's account. The Tayuan is commanded by Captain S. Kawai, and the chief engineer was R. Futatsugi; he had been four years in the service, and had always borne the character of being a very quiet, intelligent, respectable man in every way. The captain had, however, wired to the office here that there was something wrong with the chief engineer the day before the latter ran amok. It must have been a trying time for the three European passengers, and it seems certain that their lives and the vessel herself were saved by the coolness and presence of mind of the captain.

THE NINGHAI ANTI-CATHOLIC CRUSADE.

A Shanghai vernacular paper is informed by its Ningpo correspondent that since the anti-Catholic riot in Ninghai (Chekiang) the local civil and military officials have been ordered by Governor Nish to be sent to Hangchow for trial; several rioters have been beheaded and $7,000 reward offered for the capture of the leader Wang Lih-tung who is still at large. The Catholic Bishop is greatly displeased with what he considers the apathetic efforts of the authorities to capture the said leader. The Consul General at Shanghai has, at the request of the Bishop, telegraphed to Governor Nish complaining that Wang had not been arrested and stating that if he was not arrested in 7 days he (the Consul General) would request the French Admiral to send gunboats to Ninghai, otherwise the case would never be settled. Governor Nish after receiving the above telegram at once wired the French Consul General asking him not to carry out his intention and at the same time strictly ordered the local authorities to increase their efforts in effecting the capture of the escaped bandit leader.

HONGKONG GENERAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

At a monthly meeting of the General Committee of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce held in the Chamber Room, City Hall, on Tuesday, 17th November, 1903, at 3.45 p.m. Present:—Mr. E. A. MINUTES.
The minutes of meetings held on the 6th, 17th and 28th ult. were read and confirmed.

EXPLOSIVES ON BOARD STEAMERS IN THE HARBOUR.

The following correspondence was read:—
Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce, Hongkong, 19th October, 1903.

Sir,—I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 22nd ultimo in which you state that the Government sees no sufficient reason for altering the law as suggested in my letter of the 16th ultimo with regard to the conditions under which a vessel with ammunition on board may enter this harbour.

While the Committee of this Chamber regret that it is difficult to combat the decision of the Government for reasons which have not been expressed, they are loth to let the matter rest without again urging on the Government the desirability of amending the existing regulations, which they venture to submit do not conform to the modern necessities of the Port with regard to the treatment of goods in small quantities; these by the very fact of their being in small quantities place them outside the category of "dangerous goods". In the Treaty Ports of China such quantities, viz., ammunition containing in the aggregate not more than 100 lbs. of gunpowder, or 20,000 rounds of cartridges, are allowed to be carried by ships, as cargo, without the latter being asked to conform to special regulations, and if these regulations are sufficient in China, where of necessity the greatest care has to be taken to prevent the illegal importation of ammunition of war, it seems to the Committee of the Chamber similar conditions might reasonably be asked for in a port which prides itself, and derives its prosperity to a very great extent, by reason of its freedom from the annoyance and delays attaching to those ports where Custom House's exist.

It appears to the Committee that it would be sufficient protection to the Colony if instead of the red flag rule and the obligation to lie in the "dangerous goods" anchorage, it was simply required that the Masters or Agents of those ships carrying small quantities of ammunition deposit with the Harbour Master a declaration in writing giving particulars of the dangerous goods carried, due notice also being furnished, if thought desirable by the Government, not only of all ammunition and explosives landed and shipped, but also of those retained on board in transit through the port.

The Committee of the Chamber are given to understand the flying of the red flag is desired by the Harbour Authorities to enable them to readily take note of all the vessels in the port having explosives on board.

If this is correct we would beg to suggest that while the red flag be retained for all vessels with sufficiently large quantities of explosives on board to necessitate their being in the dangerous goods anchorage, another signal be brought into use which, while conveying the necessary information to the Harbour Authorities as to explosives on board, will not interfere with the free movements of the vessel while in the harbour.

The Committee of the Chamber desire to point out that such a change would not apparently necessitate an alteration in the existing Dangerous Goods Ordinance, but might be effected by Regulations issued by the Governor in Council.

The Committee of the Chamber trust that on further consideration the Government will agree to make this concession; since as matters now stand a vessel with even only one case of safety cartridges on board must fly the red flag and must proceed to the Dangerous Goods anchorage unless permission to the contrary be received from the Harbour Authorities. This in most cases would mean the loss of several hours before the steamer can enter the harbour and proceed to a wharf or her moorings.—I have, etc.,

(Sd.) EDWARD A. HEWETT, Chairman.

Hon. F. H. May, C.M.G., Colonial Secretary, Colonial Secretary's Office, Hongkong, 24th October, 1903.

Sir,—I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant regarding the conditions under which a vessel carrying ammunition on board may enter this harbour, and to inform you that it has received the careful attention of the Governor. His Excellency, however, is still of opinion that no such alteration of the law as is contemplated by your Chamber is necessary. As to the argument that delay is caused by having to obtain the Harbour Master's permission to enter the harbour, the Government is informed by the Acting Harbour Master that in nine cases out of ten the shipping agents send him a copy of the manifest of the Dangerous Goods on board before the arrival of the vessel in question, and upon receipt of such manifest his instructions are issued forthwith. No delay, therefore, is caused by the present regulations in this respect.

Finally, His Excellency fails to see that there is any hardship involved in the flying of the red flag.—I have, etc., (Sd.) F. H. MAY, Colonial Secretary, Secretary, Chamber of Commerce.

The contention of H.E. the Governor that there is no hardship involved in the flying of the red flag was not agreed with, and it was decided to address the Government on the subject again.

QUARANTINE AT BATAVIA.
Read correspondence placed at the disposal of the Chamber by the Colonial Secretary on 20th ultimo relating to the inability of the Government of Netherlands India to remove the restrictions against arrivals from Hongkong until the port could be regarded as plague-free in terms of Chap. II Sec. II of the Venice Convention. The Chairman pointed out that a notification appeared in the Government Gazette of the 6th inst. withdrawing these restrictions.

CURRENCY QUESTION.

The Chairman said that the Committee had previously read the correspondence commencing in May last between the Chambers of Shanghai, Tientsin and Hongkong which resulted in the drawing up of a joint Memorial addressed to the Diplomatic Body at Peking on the subject of the Currency of China.

The Memorial and the closing letters were laid on the table.

Shanghai, 6th August, 1903.
To His Excellency E. H. Conger, Minister for the United States of America, and Doyen of the Diplomatic Corps, Peking.

Sir,—We, the undersigned Chambers of Commerce of Shanghai, Hongkong, and Tientsin, respectfully beg to bring to your notice the serious disabilities under which this country labours by reason of the violent fluctuations in the Gold value of Silver, and the pressing need thereby occasioned for the prompt introduction of remedial measures.

In approaching this subject we are fully aware of the difficulties with which it is surrounded, but while in no way seeking to minimise these difficulties we venture to think that if the Treaty Powers show their desire to render to China their sympathetic assistance, she may be encouraged to take the initiative in endeavouring to extricate the country from the financial confusion into which it has drifted and to avert the ruin which further inaction seems to threaten.

Under Clause 11 of the treaty recently concluded with Great Britain, China agrees to take the necessary steps to provide for a uniform National Coinage, and it is in the fulfilment of this clause of the treaty (which to be effective must include the absorption of the Provincial Mints) that we recognise the preliminary step to the much needed reforms.

It is hardly necessary to point out how essential it is to the Powers carrying on trade with China—and no less to China herself—that this question of a uniform coinage, as a preliminary step to the establishment of a currency on a gold basis, be taken in hand at once, nor, on the other hand, to demonstrate the dangers attendant on delay. It is only too well known by traders that the constant fluctuation of silver, converting, as it may, a profitable contract into an ultimate loss, engenders a feeling of insecurity in all commercial transactions which cannot fail to hinder the expansion of trade.

Moved by these considerations and feeling confident that whatever measures may subsequently be found to be desirable or feasible, the first step is the establishment of a National Coinage, as provided for by treaty, we respectfully beg that the Representatives of the Treaty Powers in Peking lose no opportunity of urging upon the Chinese Government the imperative necessity of taking this matter in hand without delay.

We have the honour to be, Sir, Your obedient servants, (Sd.) R. INGLIS, Chairman, Shanghai General Chamber of Commerce.

EDBERT A. HEWETT, Chairman, Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce.

Tientsin General Chamber of Commerce, Tientsin, 14th October, 1903.

Sir,—I have the honour to enclose—

(b) Copy of a letter from the Doyen of the Diplomatic Corps under date, Peking, 8th October.

(c) Copy of my reply to the Senior Consul at Tientsin.

The despatch of the Doyen at Peking although it adds nothing to our knowledge of what progress is contemplated by the Imperial Government is, at any rate, satisfactory as giving expression to sympathy with the views held by the Chambers.—I am, etc.,

AUSTRIAN-HUNGARIAN LEGATION IN CHINA. (DECANAT.)

(Translation.)

Sir,—I have been honoured by you with a petition of the Chamber of Commerce of Tientsin, Shanghai and Hongkong, by which these bodies have expressed their desire to see a uniform coinage adopted in China.

The Diplomatic Body is highly interested with a question of this nature and greatly appreciates the efforts and zeal of the Chambers of Commerce.

I shall feel obliged if you will communicate this reply to the Chairman of the said three Chambers.—I have, etc.,

CONSTRUCTION OF RIVER STEAMBOATS.

IN THE PHILIPPINES.

The navy yard of the Manila Navigation Company has been removed from Mariveles to Pandacan, where seven stern-wheel steamboats are being constructed for river and lake commerce. These boats have a mean length of 90 feet, with beam of 20 feet each. The first one will be launched some time next week for a trial trip, and considerable interest attaches to it.

These vessels, when loaded, only draw eight feet of water.

This company in reality is a New York concern. Charles H. Trent, millionaire, is its President, Mr. McNabb, its Secretary and J. H. Greefkins its manager. Mr. Greefkins is superintending the work at Pandacan. He is assisted by F. A. Johnson, who is recognised as the Chief Engineer.

There are great expectations on the occasion of the first trial trip. Coastwise men are much interested in the venture, for with given assurance of its success, river, lake and coast commerce will rapidly revolutionize. The boats are being constructed at an expense of 20,000 pesos each. Sixty men comprise the working force at the yards.

The Company has decided to establish permanent construction yards at Pandacan, and is, therefore, building machine shops and constructing a marine railroad for company use at that point.

After the launching of the first craft, one will be completed every two months until the remaining six are upon the waters, when, if success attends all efforts, the business of construction will be extended until the demands on shallow water traffic have been fully covered.—E.Y.

REGIMENTAL BANDS AND RED TAPE.

One of the principal recommendations made by the Committee which considered the question of the expenses of Army officers was that officers should no longer be compelled to contribute to a fund for the upkeep of the regimental band. This recommendation is to be carried out at once, and the War Office, in order that bands shall not suffer by the change, will double the allowance of £80 made for their upkeep. The bands will, however, in future, be entirely under War Office control. Whether this arrangement will work more satisfactorily, as far as regimental music is concerned, is problematical. Military bands now-a-days are the chief and the most efficient expositors of popular and good music. The bandmasters are, in the great majority, highly trained musicians, enthusiastic in their profession, and doing excellent work in the perfecting of their particular branch of it. It would be a grievous pity were the change to result in any restriction being placed on their activities, or undue official interference crippling their work. Unfortunately, official control is seldom encouraging or helpful to art, and it is to be feared that unless definite steps are taken to give the bandmasters as free a hand as possible, red tape may deprive them of their initiative, and make them mere machines, grinding out music of an inferior character with unsuitable instruments. The public, no less than the Army, is interested in seeing that this does not happen. At the present time our regimental bands are such as any nation might well be proud of.—E.Y.

The U. S. gunboat Winnington expects to leave port on Tuesday for Hongkong, via Ningpo, Wenchow, Foochow, Amoy and Swatow. Upon arrival at Hongkong her crew will be transferred to the naval transport Solace for transportation to the United States, where, with the exception of three or four men, her crew of over two hundred men will be paid off their time of service having expired. The vessel will be manned with a new crew, and after the winter manoeuvres will go to Cavite, and out of commission, for repairs.—N. C. D.

AGRICULTURE IN CHINA.

Professor Honda Kosuke, doctor of agriculture of the Imperial University at Tokyo, accompanied by Assistant Professor Yoshikawa Suketaru, left Japan the beginning of June of this year for South China. The object of their trip to China was to look into the agricultural developments of South China from a scientific, as well as from a practical standpoint. They have returned home recently. They went from Shanghai up the Yangtze Valley to Hankow, then came down to Suchau, and from there went up to North China, through Fuchau, and there investigated the only one fruit orchard of any consequence in North China, and looked into their methods of horticulture. In North China they noted the utter lack of knowledge of scientific agriculture. The farmers there seem to hold to the old primitive style of cultivating the soil and the professor could not see any change in their methods since the days of their forefathers. In North China the principal products are corn and beans. From there they went down to South China. There the natural resources and conditions for agriculture are much more favourable than in North China. Not only do they have irrigation advantages through canals and rivers, but also through the overflow of the Yangtze. Like the Nile, the soil is given an annual renewal of youth, as it were, and the rice fields are pretty richly laden with rice, and the cotton fields are fair.

COMMERCIAL.

TO-DAY'S INTELLIGENCE.

The settlement passed off satisfactorily. A small lot of China Sugars offered at $104 was readily taken up, and there are buyers at the rate. There are indications of a "bear" influence operating against this stock, but with the "bulls" on the qui vive, the outcome is particularly interesting to watch. There is no change to report in other stocks.
